

ELBA ISLAND

VIA CAPRAIA ISLAND FROM SAN VINCENZO CHARTER BASE

Your dream holiday begins at in San Vincenzo. In the heart of Tuscany, a handful of km from the fine vineyards of Bolgheri, it is a very welcoming and elegant marina.

First step, the wild and colorful Capraia island, this small island will give you great emotions. With its steep red cliffs in the blue water. Suggestive coves alternate with small caves in which to venture with the tender before setting sail for Elba.

The Island of Elba is a microcosm of multiple scenarios. In a few days of navigation, you can range from the white cliffs of Capo Bianco and Le Ghaie di Portoferraio to the glittering black beaches of the municipality of Rio Marina. Passing through the crystalline seabed of La Biodola and Capo Sant'Andrea, up to the long golden beaches of Marina di Campo and Lacona. Small perched villages such as Capoliveri offer typical restaurants with breathtaking views. Fabulous hiking trails line the whole island, but the one we are particularly close to here starts from Porto Azzurro.
